3.5 Contact Hours

Description: Preparing our children for the future is the most important task we face as a nation. How teachers and families stay closely connected to our children is vitally important. PPP is instruction in working with families involved and informed on the best practices of parenting skills for the new millennium. We will explore facets of child development and working with our children with themes such as "Being There for Children," "Spending Time with Your Child," "Setting Limits," and "Expecting Your Child to Succeed."
